Museum, Second Floor

Tate Hall Museum Closure

Please note that the Tate Hall Museum will be closed from Tuesday 30 October – Friday 16 November 2018 while we change over our exhibitions.

Open Tuesday- Saturday 10am – 5pm

Special Exhibition

17 Nov – 15 Dec 2018

Voices of 68

1968: a pivotal year, and not just for Northern Ireland. National Museums NI's new exhibition encourages a fresh look at this crucial period in Northern Ireland's history. It is told in the words of some of those most directly involved at the time.

Fossils

Fossils & Footprints

The University of Liverpool's Geology department has provided our museum with a selection of fossils and a large cast of a dinosaur footprint.

Clay Pipes

NCTPA Archive

A display dedicated to pipe studies in association with The National Pipe Archive.

Dentistry

Nasty Gnashers and Dreadful Dentures

Exploration of the history of modern dentures, including some made from human teeth.

Zoology

Taxidermy and Zoology

Our Zoology collection began in 1882 in the Natural History department which was located in the adapted asylum that was once behind the VG&M.

Archaeology

Hand to Handle

Exhibition exploring a massive leap forward that changed forever the way that tools were made.

Coming Soon

Under the Sea

From 17 November

A new display that will explore our strange and wonderful collections from underneath the sea.

Art Gallery, First Floor

Open Tuesday- Saturday 10am – 5pm

Gallery 1

Extended until April 2019

Brendel Plant Models

Fascinating array of botanical plant models made for teaching purposes by the German firm R Brendel & Co around 1900. On loan from National Museums Liverpool.

Gallery 2

17 November – 21 April

Jasmir Creed - Dystopolis

This contemporary artist uses expressive lines and kaleidoscopic imagery to evoke a sense of the alienation and disorientation experienced in the modern city.

Gallery 3

The Victoria Building: More than Bricks and Mortar

Learn about the University of Liverpool's early years, when it was University College Liverpool.

Gallery 4

Coming Soon

Benefactresses— Women of the Holt Family

The stories of three women from the same family who played a key role in the University of Liverpool's long history but who are often overlooked.

Gallery 5

Until April 2019

Eleanor Rathbone – An Independent Woman

Eleanor's remarkable life as a suffragist, politician and social reformer told through documents from her own archive. Features Eleanor's portrait loaned by the National Portrait Gallery.

Galleries 6 & 7

Until 24 November

Play it Again Use It Together

With a particular focus on copyright-expired hit records from the 1920s, 30s, 40s and 50s, artists Eileen Simpson and Ben White will temporarily re-house the Institute of Popular Music archive in one of our galleries.

Gallery 8

Audubon Gallery

Exhibition highlighting the achievements of John James Audubon whose major work on the Birds of America is considered one of the finest books on birds ever completed.
